FRESH PERSPECTIVES AT CATALINA

This spring, Catalina's bar embraces a new era. Our resident mixologist has reimagined the art of the cocktail, curating a menu that balances timeless classics with signature innovations, while unveiling Catalina's first collection of refined mocktails.

Far more than an alternative, our mocktails are a conscious and considered choice—crafted with the same artistry and elegance as their spirited counterparts. Each drink is designed to delight, with imaginative flavour pairings, meticulous presentation, and a story in every glass.

Among the season's highlights is the Violet Bloom—a delicate infusion of lavender and rose, served in a coupe glass and finished with rose petals, epitomising the grace of the new collection.

Whether on the sun terrace at sunset or within the lively lounges of the bar, Catalina's spring cocktails and mocktails invite you to savour the moment with style.

CATALINA'S CELLAR REIMAGINED

This year, Catalina's transformation extends beyond design to the very heart of our wine cellar.

Our team has thoughtfully curated a collection that honours both the elegance of regional Australia and the distinction of renowned wine houses from around the world. While nearly half of our cellar is refreshed this season, our commitment remains unchanged: to present wines of provenance, character, and refinement.

The new list introduces graceful additions such as a delicate Sangiovese Rosé, a supple GSM, and distinguished labels including the Whipbird Series, created in collaboration with celebrated winemaker Larry Cherubino. Cool-climate gems from Australia's Mount Langi Ghiran and the French storied Marquis de Pennautier Estate in Languedoc—established in 1620—further enrich the collection.

Many wines are now available by the glass, a large glass and by the bottle.

Prices may fluctuate with the family-owned and artisan wineries throughout the season.
